

Distance Education Enrollments at Illinois Colleges and Universities Summer Term 2002

A survey completed by the Illinois Virtual Campus shows that distance education enrollments at Illinois colleges and universities continue to increase dramatically due to the rapid increase in Internet courses. During the Summer 2002 term Illinois colleges and universities reported offering 3,279 course sections in all distance education delivery modes that generated 43,466 course enrollments. This is an increase of 33% from the Summer 2001 term. The institutions reported offering 1,766 Internet courses during the Summer 2002 term that generated 23,651 course enrollments. This is a 77% increase from the Summer 2001 term. While the Internet and Open Broadcast TV courses had substantial increases in enrollments from the previous Summer Term, the enrollments in Interactive TV and Correspondence courses decreased from a year earlier. The graph and the table below show the changes in distance education enrollments from Summer 2001 to Summer 2002 by delivery mode.

Annual Enrollments

This is the second year that the Illinois Virtual Campus has collected distance education enrollments for the Summer Term. As a result, distance education enrollments are now available for two complete years (2000-01 and 2001-02). Illinois colleges and universities reported a total of 116,549 student course enrollments in distance education during 2000-2001 and 165,698 student course enrollments during 2001-2002. This is a 42% increase from year to year. Internet course enrollments increased from 46,678 in 2000-2001 to 81,454 in 2001-2002, an increase of 75%. The graph and the table below show the changes in distance education enrollments from 2000-2001 to 2001-2002 by delivery mode.
